Week 23 – HW 20

For this week, please rewrite all the pages you designed last week using JSP.

🌟 Bonus Task (extra points)

After logging into the system:
A regular user should be able to click on any movie from the movie list and open a separate page showing that movie's details.

On this movie details page, the user should:

- See full information about the movie (title, genre, description, image, etc.).
- Be able to write and submit comments, and view existing comments from other users.

Important Notes for Submission:

- Name your submission file using the following format: Name_HW[number]_Maktab[number] Example: Ali_Moradi_HW01_Maktab133

- If your homework includes multiple files or folders, please compress them into a single ZIP file before submitting.

The submission deadline is :

Tuesday 16:59 PM
